

Name: Mrs. Rabb

Core: All of them!

Date: Started 4/2/19

Feudalism Organizer

Directions: Complete this organizer for your feudal group, and then take notes on the other feudal groups as you hear from your Jigsaw Group.

	Explain the job or the work of the people in this class (what did they do, what did they make, etc.)	Distinguishing Characteristics of this class (What makes this class different from others?)	Describe homes and/or workplaces of people in this class	What was daily life like for this class (what did they eat, what did they wear, what did they do for fun, etc.)?	What other INTERESTING or NEW information did you learn about this class?
Nobles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> kept people safe when formal civil organization fell apart offered protection by using knights 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> silk & fur used in clothes; fancy clothes as status sons of nobles usually became knights 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lived in keep, a building with in castle homes staffed by servants had sitting rooms and bedrooms not really clean 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> men → hunting & falconry women → sewed, had children, "lady" jousting tournaments 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> many babies did not survive didn't use utensils to eat
Knights	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> easiest way to become knight was to be son of a noble protected castle practice chivalry jousting tournaments 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> son of noble was taken to different castle at age 7 to train as page, then squire, then knight traveled the world 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> same as nobles because were sons of nobles wore padding under chain mail/metal armor, helmets swords - horses 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> traveled world protected castle visiting knights stayed in lower rooms of castle 	CHIVALRY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> live to serve king & country avoid lying, cheating, torture believe in justice for all respect women avenge wrongs
Merchants Clergy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ran the church; cared for spiritual life of people; served the people; copied books of Bible by hand; served as examples of Christian life 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> religious people of the Middle Ages rank: Pope, bishop, priests, monks, nuns 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Roman Catholic Church → single largest unifying organization in Medieval Europe 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bishops → generally lived with same luxuries as nobles Priests → generally head of church Monks → read + wrote in Latin, scholarly, humble 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Had religious festivals each month

Nuns → very holy; did some work of Monks or harder work